IMPRISONMENT

The defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the United States Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a total term of 480 months. However, the Court reduces this term to a total term of 460 months to account for the period of imprisonment already served on the undischarged term of imprisonment in the Orange County Superior Court, Docket No. 16NF0460, pursuant to USSG §5G1.3(b)(1).

Therefore, the defendant is sentenced to a term of imprisonment of 460 months. This term consists of 60 months on Count One, 460 months on Counts Two through Four, and 360 months on Count Five, all counts to be served concurrently with each other. This sentence shall be served concurrently to the previously imposed state sentence in People v. Ariel Guizar-Cuellar, Superior Court of California, County of Orange, docket number 16NF0460.

The appearance bond is hereby exonerated, or upon surrender of the defendant as noted below. Any cash bail plus interest shall be returned to the owner(s) listed on the Affidavit of Owner of Cash Security form on file in the Clerk's Office.

- The Court makes the following recommendations to the Bureau of Prisons:
The defendant participate in the Bureau of Prison's Residential Drug Abuse Treatment Program and a sex offender specific treatment program. Additionally, the Court recommends that the defendant participate in psychological and educational programs as deemed appropriate and be housed in California if possible, to facilitate family visits.
- The defendant is remanded to the custody of the United States Marshal.
- The defendant shall surrender to the United States Marshal for this district:
 - at _____ am/pm on _____ (no later than 2:00 pm).
 - as notified by the United States Marshal.
- The defendant shall surrender for service of sentence at the institution designated by the Bureau of Prisons:
 - at _____ am/pm on _____ (no later than 2:00 pm).
 - as notified by the United States Marshal.
 - as notified by the Probation or Pretrial Services Office.

SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of: 15 years. This term consists of terms of three years on Count One and 15 years on each of Counts Two through Five, all such terms to run concurrently.

MANDATORY CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

- 1) You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
- 2) You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
- 3) You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.
 The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse. (check if applicable)
- 4) You must make restitution in accordance with 18 U.S.C. §§ 3663 and 3663A or any other statute authorizing a sentence of restitution. (check if applicable)
- 5) You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (check if applicable)
- 6) You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C. § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in which you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (check if applicable)
- 7) You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (check if applicable)

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any other conditions on the attached page.

AO 245C (Rev. AO 09/19-CAN 12/19) Amended Judgment in Criminal Case.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

- 1) You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of RELEASE, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
- 2) After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
- 3) You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
- 4) You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.
- 5) You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
- 6) You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with, for example), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
- 7) You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by these and the special conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
- 8) You must work at least part-time (defined as 20 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment unless excused from doing so by the probation officer for schooling, training, community service or other acceptable activities. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
- 9) You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. You must not associate, communicate, or interact with any person you know has been convicted of a felony, unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer.
- 10) If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
- 11) You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
- 12) You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).

- If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to a third party, the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk. (check if applicable)

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. I understand that the court may (1) revoke supervision, (2) extend the term of supervision, and/or (3) modify the conditions of supervision upon a finding of a violation of probation or supervised release.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. You shall have no contact with the victims (including the victims in the related case), unless otherwise directed by the probation officer.
2. You must pay any restitution and special assessment that is imposed by this judgment and that remains unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release.
3. You must provide the probation officer with access to any financial information, including tax returns, and must authorize the probation officer to conduct credit checks and obtain copies of income tax returns.
4. You must participate in a mental health treatment program, as directed by the probation officer. You are to pay part or all cost of this treatment, at an amount not to exceed the cost of treatment, as deemed appropriate by the probation officer. Payments must never exceed the total cost of mental health counseling. The actual co-payment schedule must be determined by the probation officer.
5. You must not knowingly participate in gang activity, must not associate with any member of Norteño street gang, and must not wear the clothing, colors, or insignia of Norteño street gang.
6. You must not have contact with any codefendant in this case, namely Jocelyn Contreras, Araceli Mendoza, and Alyssa Anthony, unless otherwise approved by the probation officer.
7. You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer.
8. You must submit your person, residence, office, vehicle, electronic devices and their data (including cell phones, computers, and electronic storage media), or any property under your control to a search. Such a search must be conducted by a United States Probation Officer or any federal, state or local law enforcement officer at any time with or without suspicion. Failure to submit to such a search may be grounds for revocation. You must warn any residents that the premises may be subject to searches.
9. You must not possess or use a computer or computer-related device without the prior approval on the probation officer. "Computer or computer-related device" means any electronic device capable of creating, accessing, storing, viewing, or transmitting material with visual depictions of sexually explicit conduct. "Computer or computer-related device" includes (but is not limited to) desktop and tower computers, laptop computers, smartphones, security cameras (such as "nanny cams" or cameras linked to doorbells), USB or "thumb" drives, gaming platforms, compact discs, and external hard drives.
10. As directed by the probation officer, you must enroll in the probation office's Computer and Internet Monitoring Program (CIMP) and must abide by the requirements of the CIMP program and the Acceptable Use Contract.
11. You must not access the Internet or any "on-line computer service" at any location (including employment) without the prior approval of the probation officer. "On-line services" include any Internet service provider, or any other public or private computer network. As directed by the probation officer, you must warn your employer of restrictions to your computer use.

12. You must consent to the probation officer conducting periodic unannounced examinations of your computer equipment which may include retrieval and copying of all data from your computer(s) and any peripheral device to ensure compliance with this condition, and/or removal of any such equipment for the purpose of conducting more thorough inspection. You must also consent to the installation of any hardware or software as directed by the probation officer to monitor your Internet use.
13. As directed by the probation officer, you must warn your employer of any restrictions on your computer use.
14. You must not possess or use any data encryption technique or program.
15. You must not possess, in any form, materials depicting child pornography, child erotica, or nude or sexual depictions of any child; or any materials described at 18 U.S.C. § 2256(8).
16. You must not access, via the Internet or otherwise, any pornography or other materials depicting sexually explicit conduct as defined at 18 U.S.C. § 2256(2), without the prior approval of the probation officer.
17. You must not frequent or loiter within 100 feet of any location where children are likely to gather, or have contact with any child under the age of 18 unless otherwise approved by the probation officer. Children are likely to gather in locations including, but not limited to, playgrounds, theme parks, public swimming pools, schools, arcades, children's museums or other specific locations as designated by the probation officer. This provision does not encompass persons under the age of 18, such as waiters, cashiers, ticket vendors, etc., with whom you must deal in order to obtain ordinary and usual commercial services.
18. Your employment must be approved by the Probation Officer, and any change in employment must be pre-approved by the Probation Officer. You must submit the name and address of the proposed employer to the Probation Officer at least 10 days prior to any scheduled change.
19. Your residence must be approved by the probation officer, and any change in residence must be pre-approved by the Probation Officer. You must submit the address of any proposed residence to the Probation Officer at least 10 days prior to any scheduled change.
20. You must register with the state sex offender registration agency as required by state law. You must provide proof of registration to the Probation Officer within three days of release from imprisonment/placement on supervision. In any state that has adopted the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (42 USC sec. 16901 et seq.), you must also comply with all such requirements as directed by the Probation Officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in which you reside, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense.
21. You must participate in sex offender-specific treatment, as directed by the probation officer. You are to pay part or all of the cost of this treatment, at an amount not to exceed the cost of treatment, as deemed appropriate by the probation officer. The actual co- payment schedule must be determined by the probation officer. The probation officer may release all previous mental health evaluations to the treatment provider.

22. As part of the treatment program, you must submit to polygraph testing as recommended by the treatment provider. However, you retain your Fifth Amendment right to refuse to answer questions asked during the course of treatment absent a grant of use and derivative- use immunity.
23. As part of the treatment program, you must submit to psychological testing as recommended by the treatment provider.
24. You must participate in a program of testing and treatment for drug and alcohol abuse, as directed by the probation officer, until such time as you are released from treatment by the probation officer. You are to pay part or all of the cost of this treatment, at an amount not to exceed the cost of treatment, as deemed appropriate by the probation officer. Payments must never exceed the total cost of urinalysis and counseling. The actual co-payment schedule must be determined by the probation officer.
25. You must abstain from the use of all alcoholic beverages.
